AGREED ORDER STAYING PRETRIAL DEADLINES

On February 17, 2023, Plaintiff Jill M. Krutka filed a complaint seeking discharge of her federal student loan debt (Doc. #1). Plaintiff and the United States Department of Education, the Defendant, seek to suspend all pretrial deadlines for ninety days, during which time the Plaintiff will prepare an Attestation regarding the undue hardship allegedly imposed by Plaintiff's student loan debt, and thereafter the parties will confer as to Plaintiff's request. Plaintiff will complete the Attestation and submit it for review by the United States no later than Friday, May 19, 2023.

At the end of the ninety-day suspension of deadlines, the parties shall file either: 1) a status report of their efforts to confer, or 2) stipulations of fact for review by the Court, so that the Court may consider whether to issue an Order discharging all or part of the student loan debt based upon undue hardship.
